Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Leadership Development This year has seen significant growth in new members getting involved, developing their own skills, and sharing their talents/experiences with others. Some of the projects include -Launched the Ella Baker Black Organizers Group with Apryl Walker. In 2019 we successfully finished the 2nd cohort and are looking forward to continuing in 2020. -Developed both the Candidate School and the Campaign Management Program. Some people in both programs are already running and managing campaigns! -Young members created the Youth Activism Program which is preparing folks to take action to fight for justice. -Most trainings are now led and organized by members (i.e. they went through the trainings as participants previously, but now are training others!).

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Civic Engagement We're starting to both deepen and broaden the base of those involved with the Network While still primarily most activities are located in Wilmington, we're starting to develop opportunities for folks to engage in new locations Here's some of our projects Our Civic Action Alerts share weekly policy, news, actions, and events across the state Approximately 800 people read these each week! The People's Congress had a 2nd successful year with nearly everyone involved writing their own policy resolution and learning what it takes to research and write legislation Started the District Advocate Program to prepare members on how to build relationships and communicate with elected officials So far we have members that cover 25% of Representative Districts in Delaware Our new Network Action Teams (i.e. think "Network chapters") have started in Wilmington and New Castle/ Rt 9 corridor Each month people get a little training, hear from a guest speaker, and connect to take action

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Policy Change The issue campaigns we work with continue to learn and grow We're excited to work with the following campaigns Safe Communities Campaign Promoting policies that foster trust and transparency with our immigrant communities Campaign to End Debtors' Prison Working to overhaul Delaware's system of court assessed fines and fees and their impact on low-income communities Mothers in Power The Campaign to Improve Black Maternal Health Working to end the high Black mortality rate of mothers and babies & to improve the health of Black mothers & babies
